7. Do I need to have previous experience to enter the program?

No. However, there are three (3) minimum requirements you must meet before you may submit an application. They are:

- Age – Applicants must be 17 years of age (you must be 18 years of age to become indentured). A valid photo identification card such as a valid California driver's license is required for identification and proof of age when making your application. A valid phot ID will also be required on the day of the written test.
- Education – Must be a High School Graduate with diploma or its equivalent. It is required for applicants to bring their original Diploma or Transcript or G.E.D. paperwork when applying.
- Physical Requirements – Must be able to perform the physical requirements of the trade.

Applications will not be accepted if the above requirements are not met.

8. What is the procedure after I submit my application?

- You will be required to take a written examination consisting of basic mathematics and basic mechanical reasoning. If you pass this portion with a 70% or higher you will be asked to come back for an oral interview.

9. Is there a study guide for the examination?

- No. You may go online or to your local library and review basic mathematics and basic mechanical reasoning.

10. What happens if I receive passing scores on both the written test and the oral interview?

- You will be placed on a ranked and rated eligibility list (highest score down) for possible call-up when new apprentices are to be taken into the program. This list is active for two (2) years. Potential calls into the program will be based on industry needs.

11. Am I guaranteed a spot in the program if I am placed on the Eligibility List?

- No. Submitting an application and/or placement on the Eligibility List does not guarantee employment or acceptance into the program.

12. What happens if my name is not called from the Eligibility List?

- The list will expire after two (2) years. If your name has not been called, you will be notified by mail that the list will expire. If you are interested, you must submit a new application. You will be required to complete the testing procedures and receive passing scores in order to be placed on the new Eligibility List.
